

Danny O'Flaherty

in Concert

Friends,

Danny O'Flaherty leads an audience through the mists of legends as each soaring note gently tugs at the heart transporting the listener to a world beyond time. This talented musician is equally adept with six or 12 string guitar, button accordion, tin whistle and harmonica. From songs of the sea and glen to aching calls for tolerance and peace, Danny's appeal is universal spanning all ages.

From television appearances including his own specials: Pass The Music On; Celtic Christmas; A Night In Gaelic, to radio from coast-to-coast and continent-to-continent Danny is a favorite with the media. TV anchors, program hosts, reporters and DJs unanimously agree: an interview with Danny is a guaranteed fun-packed, fast-paced informative dialogue of lively sound bytes and entertainment.
